OUR COMMUNITY

The Talawanda School District is located in southwest Ohio. The district encompasses 144 square miles, a mostly rural area surrounding the city of Oxford. Miami University is located within the district. The total population is nearly 30,000, and we serve just over 3,000 students in the Talawanda school district. Cincinnati is located 30 miles south of our community and Dayton is located about 45 miles north of our community.

The district is in the final stages of a district-wide building project that has included the construction of a new high school, two new elementary buildings, and the current new construction of a third elementary building.
